Speaker of the Legislative Assembly Announces Designation of New Languages Commissioner of Nunavut

IQALUIT, Nunavut (June 15, 2017) - Speaker of the Legislative Assembly George Qulaut today announced that a formal motion will be moved at the next sitting of the House to appoint Ms. Helen Klengenberg of Kugluktuk as Languages Commissioner of Nunavut for a five-year term of office. The 3rd Session of the 4th Legislative Assembly reconvenes on September 12, 2017.

Under the Official Languages Act, the Languages Commissioner of Nunavut is appointed by the Commissioner on the recommendation of the Legislative Assembly. The Management and Services Board of the Legislative Assembly may recommend the appointment of an Acting Languages Commissioner when the office is vacant and the House is not sitting. Ms. Klengenberg's appointment as Acting Languages Commissioner is effective June 29, 2017. A public invitation for applications for the position of Languages Commissioner was issued last year.

Speaker Qulaut said, "Helen Klengenberg has extensive senior management experience in both the public and private sectors. A proven advocate for language rights, she was a member of the Task Force on Aboriginal Languages and Cultures that presented a landmark report on indigenous language revitalization to the Government of Canada. I am proud that she is our territory's first Languages Commissioner from an Inuinnaqtun-speaking community."
